June: Weather was warm & watermelon cold

Nancy Baker at the desk once again

June tournament report:

Nancy Baker (pictured above), Paula Burnstein, and Marge Threewit shared the desk duties this month. Everything went well, including the distribution of our Match Point hats & visors. Thanks to all for your help! The A draw was very large (21 teams) and had many special night requests. We were not able to complete the finals match as a result and it is still to be scheduled. Watermelon was the snack and gift certs for Applebee's the prizes. As a result of points earned this month, Jodie Snyder and Renga M. both move to the B's. Congratulations to both of them on moving up to the next division.

Match Point Tournament Participation Guide

Item 36. Unless otherwise stated in the MPTC governing rules, USTA rules for match play shall apply "USTA Friend of the Court"

Part 2 - The Code: Player's guide for matches when officials are not present
 Note: The Code is not part of the official ITF Rules of Tennis. Players shall follow The Code in all unofficiated matches. Many of the principles also apply when officials are present.

PRINCIPLES

1. Courtesy. Tennis is a game that requires Cooperation and Courtesy from all participants. Make tennis a fun game by praising your opponent's good shots and by not:

- * Conducting loud postmortems after points
- * Complaining about shots like lobs and drop shots
- * Embarrassing a week opponent by being overly gracious or condescending
- * Losing your temper, using vile language, throwing your racquet, or slamming a ball in anger
- * Sulking when you are losing.
